

YOUR PROFESSIONAL EVENT

Welcome to the Bastogne War Museum

The Bastogne War Museum welcomes an average of 150,000 visitors a year, making it the centre of reference for the Second World War in Belgium. Since 2022 the Bastogne War Museum has become an event venue with 4 themed spaces for unique events up to 400 people.

★ PRIVATE DAYTIME AND EVENING EVENTS

The museum has four event rooms, enabling our team to work with you to create a tailor-made offer.

Its new, ultra-modern infrastructure enables you to organise a wide range of professional events (team lunches, training courses, team building, meetings, general assemblies, family days, etc.), combined with the unique experiences offered by the museum.

★ QUALITY CATERING

The Bastogne War Museum works with five quality caterers, selected by a Belgian master chef.

We can cater for all your culinary requirements, including walking dinners, (gala) dinners, cocktail parties and gastronomic experiences.

★ A VARIETY OF UNIQUE ACTIVITIES

Over the past decade, the Bastogne War Museum has expanded to offer four distinct visitor experiences across three memorial sites. Various on-site options allow you to customize your visit, including audio-guided tours, outdoor activities in vintage military vehicles, guided walking or biking tours, and augmented reality experiences.

Tailor-made events

Just 10 minutes from the Grand Duchy of Luxembourg, the Bastogne War Museum is the perfect venue for your business meetings, seminars, team-building events and more.

Located just a stone's throw from the Mardasson Memorial, the museum features four event spaces ready to accommodate your needs.

Our newly opened function and reception room offers a unique experience where you can enjoy a drink and a meal beneath a life-size P-51 fighter jet. This venue pays tribute to Major George Preddy, an American aviation ace who was killed during the Battle of the Bulge while piloting his aircraft.

★ BASTOGNE CONVENTION CENTER

With a surface area of 4305 ft², the Bastogne Convention Center is the ideal venue for large-scale events. This well-equipped room features a giant 215 ft² screen and top-quality sound systems.

Reservations for this space include the "Mustang Flight Zone".

★ BISTROT DE LA PAIX

The Bistrot de la Paix, available for evening events after 6:00 p.m., is a charming replica of a 1950s estaminet, accommodating up to 140 guests.

With era-specific music playing in the background, this cozy café captures the post-war atmosphere relaxed and joyful after the end of a five-year conflict.

★ MEETING ROOM

Accommodating up to 50 people, this meeting room offers the possibility of broadcasting your presentation on a large screen, while enjoying a splendid view of the life-size replica of Major George Preddy's aircraft, a P51-Mustang.

Special offers for GROUPS

To complement the program of your event, the museum team offers a range of activities for groups.

★ HISTORICAL WALKS

Complete your visit of the Bastogne War Museum by following the paths taken by war refugees and walking in the forests where soldiers fought.

Don't hesitate to add a visit to places of remembrance such as the Mardasson Memorial and the nearby German cemetery.

★ OUR FOUR IMMERSIVE EXPERIENCES

The "Bastogne War Museum" (2h00) plunges you into the shows of the Second World War and the Battle of the Bulge with three multi-sensory cinemas.

Then, in "Generations 45", follow the journey of two veterans in post-war Europe, from 1945 to 1989 (30min).

Outdoors, visit the "Bois Jacques" battlefield (with a guide and/or mobile app).

Finally, explore the Museum's newly unveiled "Bastogne War Rooms", an immersive experience that transports you to the core of American resistance during the Battle of Bastogne. Step into a recreated headquarters where General McAuliffe famously declared "Nuts!" and relive this pivotal moment in history. (1h00)
